

Voluntary Relinquishment Form

Instructions

A currently accredited program that submits this form is voluntarily relinquishing the program's NAEYC Accreditation. This means that the program will no longer be currently accredited, will be removed from the NAEYC website's Accredited Program Search, and may no longer advertise itself as an NAEYC Accredited Program. Programs that voluntarily relinquish their NAEYC Accreditation must remove the NAEYC logo and torch from brochures, stationary, and all other public information, including advertising.

Programs that are not currently accredited but wish to withdraw from the accreditation process should visit the NAEYC website at www.naeyc.org/academy/cancelwithdraw for more information.
